

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

INVITATION

Ewen's family thank you sincerely for your love, support and prayers at this time, and for your attendance today in person and online.

At the conclusion of the service Ewen will depart for his final resting place at Lumsden Cemetery which you are welcome to attend. Refreshments will follow at the Lumsden Memorial Hall to share many more memories of Ewen with the family and each other, and for those who wish to please accept as a gift one of Ewen's wooden bowls.

Amazing Grace

[Sung by Suzanne Prentice]

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come
'Twas grace hath brought us safe thus far
And grace will lead us home

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see.
