

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

EDITH MAY ANDERSON

14TH AUGUST 1924
21ST NOVEMBER 2021

MAY,

The sun always shines when May was in our presence. It is the wee things that remind us of May.

She carried such pride in herself, her home and her family. May's selfless, caring and loving personality will be missed.

- Preserves
- Pickles + Jams
- Bottled Salmon + Trout
- Knitted Coat hangers
- Birthday cards with little stickers arriving in the post
- Sewing (sweatshirts)
- Dancing
- Blossom Festival
- Alexandra Holidays
- Grey Nissan Pulsar
- Picking up the grandkids from school
- Jimmy's pie with apricot sauce
- A good yarn and a catch up
- Phone calls
- Bowls
- A good yarn + a catchup
- Dragging son in laws up dancing music
- Fishing
- Caravan holidays
- Girdle scones
- Rhubarb
- Bottled fruit salad
- Cane basket full of goodies on new years day
- Budgie
- Loved to wear jewellery
- Cherished her possessions
- Knitting
- Cake tins always full!

Nana,
Your special love stays with us always. It is the kind of love that only a nana can give. We will cherish the many great times and memories we shared.
Your love is a constant reminder that you will be always with us.

lots of love,

your 12 grandchildren,
24 great grandchildren,
& 2 great great grandchildren

Xmas cake mums: add 1 tsp X Spice
 9 oz butter 10oz sugar 1 tsp Cinnamon
 1 lb Flour 2 1/2 lb x Fruit
 1 1/2 Tbsp Syrup 1 tsp almond, lemon, vanilla
 1/2 tsp B Powder essence
 6 eggs.

Eileen, Beverly, Valerie and Glenys thank you for all the love and support you have shown
May in her 97 years.

You are warmly welcome to share your memories and stories of May, over afternoon tea with the family.

Afterwards, May will be joining Maurice at Gore Cemetery, if you wish to join us.

Following the burial, the family will be in the public bar at the RSA if you would like to continue the trip down memory lane with us.

"Don't wait up for me, I've gone dancing!"

