Crossing Over

Oh, please don't feel guilty - it was just my time to go
I see you are still feeling sad, and tears just seem to flow.
We all came to Earth for a lifetime, and for some it's not many years.
I don't want to see you crying, you are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you, even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my Heavenly home and I'm closer than you know.
Just believe that when you say my name I'm standing next to you.
I know you long to see me but there's nothing I can do
But I'll send you messages and hope you understand,
That when your time comes to "cross over"
I'll be there to take your hand. ~ Anon.

Ricky, Bret, Scott and all of Candy's family thank you sincerely for your love and support at this time, and for your attendance in person and online.

At the conclusion of the service you are warmly invited to stay on and share many more memories of Candy with the family and each over light refreshments in the adjacent Catering Lounge. Candy will then depart with her family for a private cremation.
