A GOOD LAUGH

Don't wear black too seriously, it's really not my style.
I'd rather see you grinning,
and laughing for a while.

Remember all the silly things,
the stories, jokes, and fun.
The times we laughed so hard we cried —those were the best ones.

I never liked the gloomy stuff,
or faces filled with sorrow.
So share a smile for me today,
and maybe one tomorrow.

I lived to make you smile, and that's how I want it to stay —so laugh a little louder,
and think of me that way.
