She taught us not through words,

But by the way she lived.

Through hard work, resilience and sacrifice,

She built a life she was proud to give.

She faced life's challenges with courage,

And met adversity with grace.

Leaving behind not only memories,

But an example no time can erase.

Her legacy lives on in her children,

Her values in all that we do.

For she showed us that with great determination,

Dreams can come true.
